Delmark Doings

Is it Festival season yet? Even though we're still in the midst of another brutal winter in Chicago, we have the privilege of always experiencing GREAT live music any night of the week in Chicago. We're very excited to announce a special jazz festival celebrating the birth one of Delmark's favorite artists and jazz clubs, Chicago's avant-garde father, Mr. Fred Anderson – Fred Anderson's 80th Birthday Celebration Festival at the Velvet Lounge – March 15th–22, a week long tribute to Fred and his Velvet Lounge with an incredible line up of the best artists in creative Chicago jazz. Many Delmark artists will be performing at this one-of-a-kind event, including the honoree, Fred Anderson, along with Nicole Mitchell, Kahil El'Zabar, Ernest Dawkins, Ari Brown, Corey Wilkes, Jeff Parker, along with many special guests like Billy Brimfield, Hamiet Bluiett, and Henry Grimes. All proceeds from the event will benefit the continued survival of the Velvet Lounge www.velvetlounge.net.

Speaking of fests, many of these same artists (Nicole, Ari, Corey, along with David Murray, Billy Bang, Dee Alexander and more) just returned from France in February, performing at the hip Afro-centric music fest, Sons d'hiver Festival (www.sonsdhiver.org). El'Zabar's Ethnic Heritage Ensemble (Kahill, E. Dawkins, C. Wilkes) are celebrating their 35thAnniversary with a February Black History Month tour, including the Bop Shop in Rochester, NY, and Ars Nova in Philly. Chicago Luzern Exchange is currently on European Tour

Do you know that before he was a "pop" star, Chicago's own eccentric singer/songwriter/violinist/guitarist/whistler supreme Andrew Bird recorded for Delmark? A decade ago, Bird was/is the lead vocalist and violinist for the popular local hot jazz/swing group, Kevin O'Donnell's Quality Six. Heretic Blues (DE-513) and Control Freak (DE-522) are both incredibly fascinating Delmark releases featuring Bird's wildly talented violin playing, and original songwriting from drummer Kevin O'Donnell that Bird beautifully sings. Check out the wild groove on "She's Got Apples" from Control Freak!

Exciting news on the Chicago Blues scene is the return of Rockin' Johnny Burgin, one of the most talented and tasteful blues guitarists anywhere! Our good friend and Delmark recording artist (2 CDs of his own, and plays on many others including Jimmy Burns and Tail Dragger), Johnny is one of the best Chicago blues guitarists we've ever heard and has resurfaced after way too long an absence. With his encyclopedic blues knowledge, impeccable taste, and true feeling of postwar Chicago Blues, Johnny can be devastatingly good in a live setting; he knows how to fill a blues dance floor! Burgin's singing is also damn good and really complements both his sensitive and powerful guitar playing. This guy plays originals and classics and can quote from so many guitarist's guitarists, like Luther Tucker, Jimmy Dawkins, Eddie Taylor, Fenton Robinson, Willie James Lyons, Bobby King, Hip Linkchain, Hubert Sumlin, etc. Johnny's ready to pour out his real life blues for his eager fans who have been waiting, wondering, missing. Make sure you welcome back Johnny at his return to the Smoke Daddy BBQ on May 16th, where Johnny and his La-Z-Boys ruled during the '90's!

Have you heard of our Chicago friend Steve Krakow, aka Plastic Crimewave, and his incredibly entertaining Secret History of Chicago Music "comic strip" series and radio show?! My guitar hero, Delmark artist Jimmy Dawkins, was just featured on this great document of "pivotal Chicago musicians that somehow have not gotten their just dues." The segment also airs on WGN radio, and Jimmy Dawkins called in and talked about his desire to open up a new club in Chicago. I hear ya Jimmy - we need a place to hang like the good ol' days! Other Delmark recording artists who have been featured on the series are: J. B. Hutto, Kalaparusha Maurice McIntyre, Syl Johnson, Mighty Joe Young, Magic Sam, and Muhal Richard Abrams- hell, he could feature almost the entire Delmark catalog!

Our condolences to friends and family of the recently passed away Robert Ward, Master of the Magnatone, unsung hero of soul and blues. Ward's instantly recognizable shimmering guitar and vocals will be much missed. ALL of his recordings are stellar, including his final on Delmark, New Role Soul (DE 741.)

Looking forward to spring/summer with Delmark debut releases from jazz cornetist Josh Berman, Chicago blues guitarist/singer Quintus McCormick, and the distinctive deep funk blues of West Side Chicago Blues legend, Eddie C. Campbell!

Re: JAMES CRUTCHFIELD
12-10-01

Pianist James Crutchfield died December 7th, 2001 after a brief hospitalization. He has six tunes on your Biddle Street Barrelhousin' album (Delmark 739). James had been in a nursing home in poor health since earlier this year. His funeral was at the Jones Funeral Home at Delmar and Skinker. He truly was the last of his era and a true friend to many.

Re: JOHN CHAPMAN & DIXIE STOMPERS

John Chapman's passing was a sad day for me. He gave me an education musically I would never have had. He was a genuine character if ever there has been one. You are right: he never had a drinking problem. He could drink and retain his musicianship better than anybody I have ever known.

I had to bow out of a few jobs and John got really mad about that…a chemical burn, scorpion bites, etc.

John was never a believer in the rhythm section soloing much. That has paid dividends in many ways. I learned what to do to keep a section together. We didn't know about Jim Robinson, Yerba Buena, Preservation Hall, etc. I got to hear a whole new world. Emmanuel Sayles really speaks to me (a banjo player). After going to school with Dr.Chapman, hell, we could sit in with anything around here 'cause we had developed chops to play the way we wanted.

He used to call anytme from 1 AM to daylight & talk about music.

John's timing was about the best I ever saw. The drive he put into everything he played was unforgettable. Regardless of the tempo, that drive was always there.

John Chapman moved from St.Louis to Tennessee were he had a local trad band. Made a few more Dixie Stompers CD's for Delmark with some of the other members from the 50's

11/2/04

Enclosed is an article bout John "Preacher" Stephens (which) will fill in some information on Stephens and Wicks (John Wycliffe). The next issue of Blues & Rhythm will feature my story about Cliff Butler who recorded on States about the same time. He was issued on Pearl LP-17, Long Man Blues.

Thanks Keith, and I guess we know who should write the linernote when we reissue Pearl #13 on a Delmark CD (it's currently out of print).

Re: JUNIOR WELLS
3-14-08

I approached Junior Wells one night at Rosa's. He was sitting at the bar with his girlfriend…decked out, as you can imagine, in his "plumage".

I tapped him on the shoulder and asked him if he could sign my copy of the classic Hoodoo Man Blues record. He took great care with that autograph, even dating it and invited me to sit down with him and his girl friend and have a drink This was a great moment with that man. When it was all done I said, "Thank you, sir."

He gave me a real mean look and said sternly, "You don't say 'Thank you sir' to me -- to me you say, 'Thank You Motherfucker!" Sheepishly, of course I did.

Re: RHYTHM AND NEWS

As I save all my Rhythm & News, I wish the order form was an insert so I wouldn't have to tear the back page off. Thanks for a great publication and service.

As you know by now, we have instituted a policy of enclosing another copy of R&N when our friends tear out the order form. (We sure don't want to discourage anyone from re-ordering.)

Where'd You Get All Those LPs?

When I first entered the record business in the early 1950's. the 78 rpm record was just about dead to the public. But jazz fans and the few blues fans, wanted performances not available on 45 rpm or LP's. If they wanted to hear the music they had to collect the old records. Stores and distributors were dumping them wholesale for dimes and quarters and thus my store became well-stocked from my measly capital. We continued to buy up the industry's shellac into the early 60's. One acquisition was 13,000 Prestige 78's as well as blues and jazz on such labels as Okeh, Parrot, Trumpet, etc.

Later, when the 10" LP died over one weekend, I did the same, buying St Louis and Chicago distributors' inventories, as well as eventually portions of the 10" inventories of Riverside and Stinson.

So when the CD arrived and the LP supposedly "died", since we had more capital than in those early days, we bought up the distress LP's of just about every indie wholesaler in the country. We even bought the remaining inventories of a few labels including Caravan Of Dreams, Euphonic, IAJRC, Blackbird, Tacoma, Boris Rose, and others.

(With the Boris Rose stock we acquired the last remnants of his five barely-released CD's featuring Miles Davis, J.J. Johnson, Charles Mingus, Lee Wiley, etc. as well as a CD of some famous "party" records including the legendary "Decrepitation Contest".)

Of course, other LP's came from retailer's stocks and occasionally, we buy a collection and some of the records are still shrink-wrapped, although we sometimes have to rewrap them to lose old price stickers.

Created under the Fantasy, Inc. umbrella, Original Jazz Classics has been a tremendously successful program of reissues. Its premise is simple: to present memorable jazz albums with original covers and notes, which have been unavailable for years. The vaults of the Fantasy-affiliated labels Prestige, Galaxy, Milestone, Riverside, Debut, Contemporary, Jazzland and Pablo hold some of the most important jazz ever recorded. New owners, Concord Music Group, have dipped into their vast catalogue to release a handfull of titles on LP. This list combines our inventory of out-of-print OJC LPs with these new titles. All LPs listed below are $11.99. Some are in limited supply...

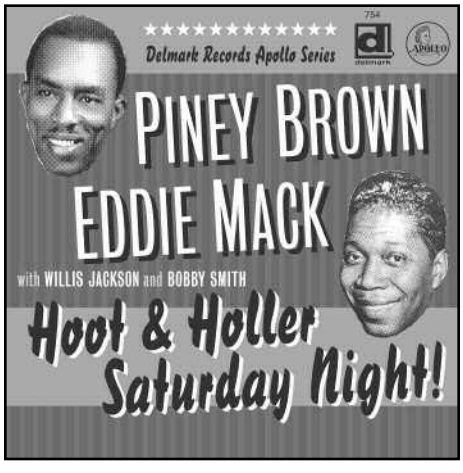
Piney Brown (1922 - 2009)

We are indebted to Gene Mayl,leader of one of the oldest trad jazz units, the Dixieland Rhythm Kings (Delmark 232), for giving us the sad news of the passing of one of the artists in Delmark's Apollo series. He sent us an obit from the Dayton Daily News by Khalid Moss whom we should also thank.

As a result of the reissue of the Apollo material, we were contacted by Piney Brown and had hoped to have an opportunity to hear him live and consider doing an album for the label. He did a tour of Europe and recorded Bone Dog #20 (14.99) in 2006.

Born January 20, 1922 in Birmingham, Alabama, Piney Brown sang with a family group, the Blue Jay Singers (who recorded for Paramount Records in 1931). He went to Baltimore to appear at a talent show, then stayed briefly in Kansas City where he was apparently the subject of Joe Turner's 1940 recording, Piney Brown Blues. Doubtless he was influenced by the contact with Turner.



Returning to Baltimore, he worked with Lucky Millender and was coached by saxophonist Big John Greer before going back on the road and recording for Miracle, Apollo, Jubilee, King, Par (Prestige), Sittin'In With, Duke, Atlas, Sound Stage 7, and others. In the 1960s he co-wrote the song "Popcorn" with James Brown.

After reissuing his Apollo tracks on #754-Hoot And Holler Saturday Night (754), we got a call from Piney and hoped to check him out for a possible recording project. But he passed away February 5th at Harborside Nursing Home in Dayton.

(I am indebted to Brian Baumgartner's notes for the Delmark CD for some of the above information.)

Susan Markle: Founding Member of the JIC

I met Susan Markle as a board member at the beginning of the Jazz Institute of Chicago. She was later elected president of JIC.

She video'd numerous jazz events which would be a fascinating part of each year's Jazz Fair. (The official end of the January blahs in the Chicago jazz scene: 3 rooms with 6 hours each of live jazz Susan's videos, my 16mm, and various tables selling jazz jewelry, records, memberships in jazz organizations. etc.)

One of her videos was of an Eddie Jefferson appearance at the Jazz Showcase which, sadly, turned out to be his very last public performance. It was released by Rhapsody Films,$23.99.

She had been a research fellow at Harvard when she started hanging out at Boston's Storyville Club, received a doctorate in Psychology and taught at UCLA before coming to the University of Illinois-Chicago. She wrote several books on instructional research and design and was later video editor of Jazz Times magazine.

Susan left Chicago in 2006 and moved to Silver Springs, Maryland where she died of emphysema on December 19th, leaving a son, Alden Meyer and a granddaughter.

Where Is The Trad?

I have been bugged by the total absence of coverage of the current traditional jazz scene in the jazz press. Sure, Louis, Oliver, Morton, etc. get mentioned in passing. The fact that they are gone is no excuse to ignore the many talented and dedicated musicians who capably play the older style. Many are truly creative and worthy of notice.

Why is it OK to play avant garde jazz (50+ years old if you count from the release of Sun Ra's first album, Sun Song, Delmark 411, in 1958). Or to play bop, which is at least 60 years old; or even Swing (75 years old) but to go further back for inspiration is Verboten!

I think one of the problems is that the young writers just are out-of-touch with the trad scene. Perhaps they think all such bands wear funny hats and blazers, wave confederate flags, etc.

It's not that young jazz fans don't appreciate the idiom. Young folks often come into the JRM and buy the 20's classics along with Miles, Basie, Coltrane, Ornette and Shepp, etc. But they just aren't informed about where they might hear trad in the flesh.

Many years ago when we recorded the Memphis Nighthawks (a group of Univ. of Ill. students including Ron DeWar - much respected when he plays modern jazz.) They attracted nice crowds working in the Halsted/Fullerton clubs-Wise Fools, etc.

Too bad the trombonist moved to New York (where he did the Tricky Sam Nanton stuff in the Coppola film Cotton Club).

I guess one of the problems is that the trad musicians seem to live and play mostly in the Chicago's suburbs.

Serious attention has finally been paid to the New Orleans brass band scene. Appearances in films and TV shows shot there and the fact that Wynton Marsalis played in them probably helped. (Katrina also.) So why not the remaining hot jazz scene in New Orleans and elsewhere.

The party line used to be that "those old guys can't play anymore", said about Bunk Johnson at 55 but not about Dizzy at the same age.

Excellent trad jazz combos exist coast to coast. Yes, some pretty shitty ones, too. And some are more into showbiz than jazz. But sort it out and there's a gigantic scene that's going undocumented except in The American Rag, 20137 Skyline Ranch Dr., Apple Valley, CA 92308-5035 (#26/year US).

Cadillac Records

A Label-Founder's View of the Movie About the Founding of a Label

This film is going to be of great interest to blues fans. I attended a pre-release screening in late November unaware that it was about Chess Records, using the real names of Leonard Chess and some of their artists.

The film sticks pretty close to the label's blues history. It opens in the Chess brothers' scrapyard, soon proceeds to the opening of the Mocambo (39th & Stony Island) and quickly gets them involved with Aristocrat Records, and eventually to their own label, Chess.

Muddy Waters' early recordings, followed by the addition of Little Walter, are shown as early hits for Chess. Payola is quite honestly shown as an important part of this success.

Eventually, it portrays Howling Wolf and Etta James. It's a pretty accurate treatment of the record business during that late 40's, 50's, etc. period when the lack of attention to the blues and jazz scene on the part of the major companies left plenty of room for indie expansion.

I have few complaints (none serious) about the film but it didn't have a specifically Chicago feel although it does have a big city ambience. No back lot look here.

A few errors of fact might be mentioned:

Muddy Waters first acquaintance with Chess was as an accompanist for Sunnyland Slim. Also, Chess resisted using Muddy's full band (as had Lester Melrose earlier) until Little Walter cut the Parkway session (currently available on Delmark #648-Blues World Of Little Walter) which convinced Chess to have it Muddy's way. (I have this from both Muddy and Walter.)

Howling Wolf came to Chess via Sun Studios and something could have been made of the competition between Chess and the Bihari Brothers' (Modern, RPM, Crown, Kent, etc.). But Chess certainly made the best Wolf recordings.

Chess didn't have his own studio when he started the label on 47th. He used United Broadcast and then Universal for most of those early, classic sides and didn't have a real studio until the late 50's when the whole operation moved to 2120 S. Michigan.

It could have indicated Chess' success when he took over the 5 or 6 story Revere Camera building several years before he quit. In fact, last time I passed, the Chess signs were still on the front of the building and might have been cut into the film.

Too bad they had to omit Sonny Boy Williamson, my all-time favorite bluesman. They could have pointed out that Chess was smart enough to get Studs Terkel to do some liner notes for the early blues LP's… did he know that whites were going to get interested in the blues?

Some mention could have been made of the very square output of non-Chess material on Aristocrat. It was by no means just a blues/jazz label. But I can't bitch about the exclusion of other blues artists -- movies aren't treatises and they try to get the basic facts into a two hour period.

I suspect a sequel could be made outlining Chess's Argo/Cadet label's contribution to jazz, employing Joe Segal, Jack Tracy, Dave Usher,etc. as producers.

Chess' Aristocrat records included sides by tenor sax man Gene Ammons. Later, when Esmond Edwards at Prestige found out that Gene Ammons had recorded for Chess while under contract to Prestige, Leonard reportedly said something like, "When an MFer can find me out like that, I want him to be working for Me!" -- and he did - for years.

I am sure Chess made more money from Ahmad Jamal, James Moody, and Ramsey Lewis, than from Muddy, Walter. Wolf, and Etta.

Maybe a sequel: Cadillac Records Gets Into Jazz could follow. If they can use the same crew it would be worth considering.

It's great to see a movie about the blues and the record business that seems like the real thing.

The film pulls no punches, revealing aspects of each character not known to most blues fans.

Beverly Harris of Toronto has sent us a review of another film about the Chess label, Who Do You Love, a 90- minute British production directed by Jerry Zaks who won Tony awards for several Broadway plays in the late 80's, early 90's and directed Marvin's Room (M.Streep,L.deCaprio,D. Keaton. R.DeNiro,etc.). Among the cast of the Chess film is Keb' Mo' as Jimmy Rogers.

Hats off to Marshall Chess who was involved in both productions.

Red Holloway
Go Red Go

featuring Chris Foreman

Delmark DE 585

Red Holloway is one of the greatest tenor sax players in the history of jazz, period. There's an upper echelon of players like Cannonball, Golson, Moody, Stitt Griffin and, of course, Red is there. Red is in his early 80s now so it would be impossible to review his career in one short paragraph so let's just say on Go Red Go, Holloway returns home to Chicago where he grew up and gets down with some good, greasy organ combo music. Wonderful accompaniment from Chris Foreman, Hammond B3 organ, George Freeman & Henry Johnson, guitar and Greg Rockingham, drums. Great blend of straight ahead jazz, blues and ballads.

Garvin Bushell & Friends One Steady Roll

Delmark DE 250

Jazz clarinetist Garvin Bushell's 1988 autobiography is rightly titled "Jazz From the Beginning". Bushell recorded with great pianists -- James P. Johnson, Fats Waller, Willie "The Lion" Smith, Jelly Roll Morton -- and with important swing orchestras, such as those led by Fletcher Henderson, Cab Calloway and Chick Webb. In mid-century Bushell recorded with many of the period's greatest jazz names, including John Coltrane, Eric Dolphy, Gil Evans, and King Curtis. This 1982 session features Garvin Bushell, clarinet, bassoon; Richard Hadlock, soprano sax; Ray Skjelbred, piano; Stu Wilson, bass; John Markham, drums; Leon Oakley, cornet; Barbara Lashley, vocals on 3 songs.

Rob Mazurek Quintet Sound Is

Delmark DE 586

Jazz cornetist Rob Mazurek consistently pushes beyond the expectations of his listeners, drawing together ideas out of sound, personalities out of space, and fusing color and light into the tones of his music. The debut record of this new quintet, featuring John Herndon on drums (Tortoise, the For Carnation), Matthew Lux on bass guitar (Isotope 217, Iron and Wine) Josh Abrams on acoustic bass (Town and Country, Black Earth Ensemble) and Jason Adasiewicz on vibes (Loose Assembly, Rolldown) pulls together an astounding array of personalities into a seamless and effervescent whole. Sound Is features 14 new Mazurek compositions.

Shirley Johnson
Blues Attack

Delmark DE 798

"Raised in the church but evidently born to sing the blues, Shirley Johnson belts like a spiritual daughter of Koko Taylor, flexing her husky voice on ballads and up-tempo love songs, hitting gravel when she reaches for a higher note or pushes her volume." -Ted Drozdowski, PULSE! from a review of Shirley's first Delmark CD Killer Diller (Delmark 757). Shirley is back with that same blend of traditional good-rockin' Chicago blues, smoldering R&B and poppin' soul. Almost all of the 14 songs on Blues Attack are new original compositions by various musicians on the CD however there are great covers of classics "Unchain My Heart" and "634-5789".

Delmark • 55 Years of Jazz Delmark DE-914

Contains one CD and one DVD! After wearing out Delmark's 2003 set celebrating 50 years of great jazz you probably thought you were going to have to wait at least until 2013 for another such anniversary collection but when you've got a rich catalog like Delmark's and a label head like Bob Koester who is committed to keep expanding that catalog, why not seize every opportunity to throw a party for your enterprise--and all the great artists behind the candles on the cake? CD features Coleman Hawkins, Sun Ra, George Lewis, Curtis Fuller, Deep Blue Organ Trio, Francine Griffin and more. DVD features Nicole Mitchell, Ari Brown, Fred Anderson, Chicago Underground Trio and more.

Delmark • 55 Years of Blues Delmark DE-915

Sleepy John Estes

On 80 Highway Delmark DE-797

John Adam Estes was born on January 25, 1904 in Ripley, Tennessee. His recording career spanned six decades from the '20s until his death on June 5, 1977. "Sleepy John Estes was one of the most individual of all recorded blues singers. He sang with phrasing that fairly dripped with expressiveness in a high crying tone that seemed often like he was speaking to the listener. The songs he wrote were well suited to this treatment, dealing frequently with his and his neighbors' lives in Brownsville, Tennessee." - Gerald Brennan. This session from July 19, 1974 was recorded just before Sleepy John and Hammie Nixon departed for a tour of Japan. None of these performances have ever been issued. Sleepy John Estes, vocals, guitar; Hammie Nixon, vocals, harmonica, kazoo.

John Burnett Swing Orchestra

Formed in 1999 this orchestra is comprised of top-notch Chicago musicians and features guest vocalist Frieda Lee. This live recording was captured at Fitzgerald's in Berwyn, IL (the album title refers to the street location of the venue) and the band is joined by special guest trumpeter Randy Sandke. Groovin' High, Night In Tunisia, Struttin' With Some Barbeque, One O'Clock Jump, Sweet Georgia Brown, April In Paris and more. "His object is to keep the big band alive and swingin'. In this, he has done admirably well." -Louie Bellson.

What Does "-BR" Mean?

The name Boris Rose is legendary among modern jazz fans. If you've enjoyed the Bird, Monk, Billie or Bud Powell off-air performances issued by Columbia, ESP and perhaps other labels, you are already familiar with his work. Most if not all of this material first appeared on one of Boris' several hundred labels.

It's not hard to spot a Boris album. Virtually all the covers were designed by one guy. Many of the early albums testify to Boris' love of Roy Eldridge's trumpet my adding Roy to the occasional song title (I Can't Give You Anything But Love Roy). Most of his LP jackets had blank white liners. A few came in blank white jackets and we have some pressings as-yet unjacketed. The names of the label is often the giveaway, as are humorous credits to such sponsors as the jazz society of some tiny village where one can safely assume jazz to be only a vague rumor to the local populace. (If those towns exist.)

The source for his albums is almost invariably from radio broadcasts he taped quite professionally, and not always jazz. Boris' personal taste was for traditional jazz but his jazz catalog ran the gamut from Bunk beyond Monk to Cecil Taylor and Ornette Coleman. It's unfortunate that there were no blues broadcasts on New York radio.

There's also a lot of material from other areas: Gene Autry (including an album of early Gennett-/Champion sides) and other western heroes, movie stars like Judy Garland, Boris Karloff, et.al. and seeming-soundtracks from such vintage programs as Lux Radio Theater. He even did a 45 by Dooley Wilson doing "As Time Goes By". For comic relief there's Abbott & Costello, Edgar Bergen, Jack Benny, Smith & Dale, and Moran & Mach not to mention the famous crepitation contest which couldn't have possibly been an air check.

In most cases when JRM acquires a label's remaining inventory, there are humongous quantities of some titles and little or no copies of others so we price them accordingly from 99-cents up. While the present stock certainly doesn't encompass Boris' entire output, I believe we bought c.90% of what he issued. But no single title is in stock in large quantity. So our price scale is $8.49 and $9.99 for the jazz titles and $1.99 or $3.99 for the non-jazz.

I am sorry that I never met Boris Rose but he was a legend and we are proud to be the recipient of part of his legacy. He preserved an enormous amount of our cultural heritage. - Bob Koester

Eric Alexander
Mode For Mabes

Delmark DE 500

Jazz tenor saxophonist Eric Alexander firmly established himself as a mature voice even though he was only 27 years of age when he recorded Mode For Mabes in 1997. It was his fourth Delmark CD and critics were already comparing him to the mightiest and most soulful of classic tenor players like Dexter Gordon & George Coleman. Mode For Mabes features a three-horn frontline with trumpet Jim Rotondi & trombone Steve Davis reminiscent of Art Blakey's Messengers, which gives the band the fullness of a small big band. Mabes, of course, is the ever-soulful pianist Harold Mabern who drives the Messengers-like title track. Other highlights: the greasy "Sugar Ray" and a cover of Coltrane's classic "Naima".

Ira Sullivan presents Lin Halliday
Where Or When

Delmark DE 468

Lin Halliday was one of those underground heroes that never got his due. He played tenor sax on the Chicago jazz scene for more than 20 years until he passed in January of 2000. From a review of this 1993 session Owen Cordle writes: "All of Halliday's solos are masterful (ditto Sullivan's), but his swirling turn on 'Dear Old Stockholm', his slightly askew musings on the title tune, and his fragmented, congested lines on 'Pent-Up' stand out. This is a poignant comeback you hope will continue on into the bigtime." - Down Beat. Multi-instrumentalist Ira Sullivan plays tenor sax & trumpet and should be considered co-leader. Jodie Christian, Larry Gray and Robert Barry provide marvelous rhythm.

Art Hodes Up In Volly's Room

Delmark DE 217

The title refers to Chicago jazz clarinetist Volly DeFaut, a former member of the famous New Orleans Rhythm Kings, who also recorded with Jelly Roll Morton, Muggsy Spanier and the Gene Goldkette Orchestra. Russian-born jazz pianist Art Hodes is the leader for these 1972 recordings, which also feature Truck Parham, bs; Barrett Deems, dms; and on 2 songs Nappy Trottier, tpt and George Brunis, tmbn. "[A] mellow, understated set of recordings, but the feel and group sound is so cohesive and gently swings with those ol' New Orleans rhythms that I keep coming back to it time & time again." -DISCoveries Volly DeFaut passed away in 1973 making these his very last recordings.

Blues Before Sunrise
Live, Volume 1

Delmark DE 699

For 38 years radio program host Steve Cushing has aired Blues Before Sunrise, the "Blues Heritage Showcase". It started out on Chicago's public radio station WBEZ then in the early 90s went international via satellite syndication. On October 20, 1996 Blues Before Sunrise held a benefit concert at Chicago's B.L.U.E.S. to help purchase the satellite time needed to keep the show on the air. The music on this CD is hair bristling proof of the constancy of the post-war blues sound and of the vitality of the ever-fruitful Chicago scene. Featuring Jimmy Burns, Billy Boy Arnold, John Brim and Big Wheeler. 13 songs.
